

From the raised entry, the eye is drawn immediately to the spectacular living room/dining room, with its soaring ceilings and sweeping sight lines: a dramatic first impression. Just beyond is the “great room”—an adjoining kitchen/nook and a family room ideal for casual gatherings or evenings at home. The center kitchen island has a built-in television enclosure for your viewing convenience. As you advance upstairs, the spacious landing and sitting area lead to large secondary bedrooms and dual bath—a perfect separate suite for the children of the house.
